

Department of Chemistry
University of Victoria
Associate or Full Professor and Chair of the Department of Chemistry

The University of Victoria invites applications for the position of Associate or full Professor and Chair of the Department of Chemistry. The Chemistry Department is home to 20 faculty members and 65 graduate students, and offers a range of degree programs in Chemistry (www.chemistry.uvic.ca). The Department has undergone significant recent growth of undergraduate and graduate programs, has a dynamic complement of faculty and staff, and has recently occupied substantial new synthetic research space. The position offers an opportunity to build on the considerable strengths of UVic Chemistry. The successful applicant will have a distinguished record of scholarship and teaching, demonstrated administrative experience, and a deep understanding and enthusiasm for both teaching and research. The area of expertise is open, but should complement existing and emerging research strengths of the Department.

Applications should include a CV, and a statement of research interests, teaching philosophy, and administrative vision. The candidate should also supply names and complete addresses (fax and e-mail) for three or more people able to act as referees. Applications should be sent by e-mail to:

Dr. Robert Lipson, Dean, Faculty of Science, University of Victoria, Box 3065, Victoria, B.C., Canada V8W 3P6 (e-mail: sciedean@uvic.ca).

Review of applications will commence by September 15, 2010, and will continue until the position is filled.

The University of Victoria is an equity employer and encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Aboriginal Peoples, people of all sexual orientations and genders, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the University.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
