About the Position:

Fields of Specialization: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Econometrics

Academic Unit: Economics

Category of Appointment: Assistant/Associate Professor

Rank/Position Title: Tier II CRC appointment in Frontiers of Economic Analysis

Start Date: January 1, 2026 or as soon as possible after that date, subject to approval of the Canada Research Chair program (see below)

Closing Date: September 30, 2024

The Department of Economics invites applications from qualified candidates for a Tier II Canada Research Chair (CRC) appointment in Frontiers of Economic Analysis at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor beginning January 1, 2026 or as soon as possible after that date, subject to approval of the CRC program (see below). An appointment with tenure is possible, depending on qualifications of the successful candidate.

To see the full position posting, please visit Carleton University's Deputy Provost's website at <https://carleton.ca/deputyprovost/jobs/academics/>.

The Department seeks an exceptional emerging scholar whose work centres on pushing out the boundaries of economic analysis. We are particularly interested in scholars whose research incorporates one or more of the following areas:

- Cutting edge microeconomic analysis, such as behavioural research and experimental methods, to inform and evaluate economic policy
- Innovative approaches to empirical analyses of equity, diversity and inclusion in economic policy
- New approaches to analyzing macroeconomics and financial economics with applications to economic policy
- New econometric methods that support research related to economic policy and policy evaluation.

Tier II Chairs are intended for exceptional emerging scholars (i.e., candidates must have been an active researcher in their field for fewer than 10 years at the time of nomination). Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave, COVID disruptions, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier II Chair assessed through the program's Tier II justification process. For more details, please see the Canada Research Chairs Secretariat at <https://www.chairs-chaires.gc.ca/> and the Carleton Office for Research Initiatives and Services at <https://carleton.ca/coris/>.

For more details, please see the Canada Research Chairs Secretariat at <https://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/> and the Carleton Office for Research Initiatives and Services at <https://carleton.ca/coris/>.

Appointment is conditional on the approval of the application by the CRC Program.

About the Academic Unit:

The successful candidate for the CRC in Frontiers of Economic Analysis will be housed in the Department of Economics at Carleton University. The Department offers undergraduate programs, an M.A. in Economics, and (in partnership with the University of Ottawa) a Ph.D. in Economics through the Ottawa Carleton Graduate School of Economics which includes eight sub-fields in Economics. Further information is available at <https://carleton.ca/economics/>.

Qualifications:

This position requires:

- A track record of high-quality, scholarly, peer-reviewed research on the frontiers of economic analysis;
- A PhD in economics or a closely related field (Carleton requirement);
- Capacity to attract external research funding;
- Capacity to attract, supervise, and mentor graduate students;
- Capacity to attract, develop and build relationships with other researchers;
- Strong potential for outstanding teaching contributions; and
- Willingness to interact with the research community at Carleton University.

Application Instructions:

Applicants should apply via <https://econjobmarket.org/>. Applications must include a cover letter, a curriculum vitae, a job market paper, a statement of teaching interests and experience, and samples of research papers. Please also include a statement that identifies your strengths and/or experience in advancing equity, diversity and inclusion in your teaching, service, and/or scholarly activities.

Applicants should also arrange to have three referees upload letters to <https://econjobmarket.org/>.

Please indicate in your application if you are currently legally eligible to work in Canada.

Questions regarding the position should be sent to the attention of Associate Dean Josh Greenberg, Chair of the CRC Selection committee, Carleton University at odfpa@carleton.ca

To help us develop our equity programs, a confidential equity and diversity self-identification survey will be sent to all applicants separately.

We invite all applicants to provide an optional Career Interruption Statement outlining any career interruptions <https://carleton.ca/deputyprovost/?p=1784>.
